■ THE TWO GREATEST RACES

in the world take place on the first Sunday of October at the ParisLongchamp racecourse: the Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (Thoroughbred) and the Qatar Arabian World Cup (Purebred Arabian). On that day, 1 billion spectators turn their eyes on the City of Light.

RACING'S SMARTMAIL: FOR PROFESSIONALS, BY PROFESSIONALS

Over 30 pages in A4 format, or by e-reader, Jour de Galop (JDG) tells you all the indispensable racing and bloodstock news from around the world. An unmissable tool for the thousands invested in the Thoroughbred industry, where the right news at the right moment can make all the difference.

No other form of communication is as universal or as stable as the e-mail. Nor as personal! An e-mail tells you that the paper is online; it takes one click in the mail to download the PDF version, or in reader mode which allows you to translate the entire journal into English; a file format that displays regardless of your device, and regardless of its age; a desired mail that takes zero effort to read, providing 100% client satisfaction.

Delivery by e-mail is without equal: at a time of hyper-connectivity, security breaches, data manipulation, unwanted or unintentional breach of privacy. It is the last refuge of our digital privacy. The last space where you can express your freedom to receive information or not, to open a message or not, to read it or not.

Bespoke communication

MEETING

Racing is not only a sport, nor a show. It is also an incredible place to network and to communicate. Socialising around a Pimm's at Royal Ascot, a Mint Julep at the Kentucky Derby, or champagne at Chantilly for the Prix de Diane.

In France, a race day is known as a 'reunion', and several consecutive days a 'meeting'. The vocabulary itself is that of gathering and exchanging. Symbolic!

NETWORK

Since 2010, Jour de Galop has taken the lead on social networks. A natural step for a player in communication.

Today, we have gathered the largest network of young investors and racing professionals on the three most influential networks: Facebook, Twitter and Instagram — with more than 72,100 cumulative followers.

IN TRIBUTE TO THE ARABIAN HORSE

In January 2018, in collaboration with the French Arabian Horse Racing Association (AFAC), we created The Arabian Yearbook.

This is a luxury bilingual book (English / French) of 248 pages, at once practical, professional and prestigious. This Yearbook includes the reports of all Group and Listed Purebred Arabian races contested in France during the year, the leader tables (professionals and horses), an extensive stallion book, etc.

This book is sent, free of charge, to all AFAC members and the sponsors of Purebred Arabian racing. With a print run of 500 copies, it is offered to the winning connections of all Purebred Arabian Group races in France. It is also available at several major international events and emailed in PDF format to the entire database of The French Purebred Arabian.

Finally, it can be downloaded in PDF on our dedicated website...

Our team is made up of copy writers trained by Jour de Galop, racing experts. They are present every day in the field.

In permanent relation with our communication agency, they will help you identify your communication opportunities and structure your commercial message, in French and in English.
